

DID YOU KNOW?

Today's Gospel passage serves as the basis of our tradition to bless our homes with Holy Water. Indeed, this passage is read by the priest during a "House Blessing" for a family's new home. Even though Zacchaeus was a sinner, our Lord As our Lord entered his home. Likewise, our Lord enters our home. Like Zacchaeus, we too are honored to have our Savior enter into our homes.

A few important points serve to offer us spiritual insight and inspiration:

1. In gratitude we, like Zacchaeus, are to welcome our Lord by repenting of our sins – repentance being the most important honor that we can give to our Lord.

As our Lord comes into our lives, we can best honor Him by "cleaning up our act," just as Zacchaeus did.

2. After a brief prayer service, the priest sprinkles Holy Water throughout the new house, reminding us that every home is a replica of Christ's Church as a whole. Hence, our family homes are often referred to in spiritual terms as "house churches." As our Lord enters our homes through prayers of blessing, Holy Water serves as a vessel of His divine presence to cleanse the way in which we live among family members and guests.

3. By opening the door of our homes to let Christ enter, we pledge ourselves to live with faith in His promise that, those who hear His voice and open the doors to their homes and hearts, He will enter and dine with them (Revelation 3:20). While He will dine with us at our family table, which is generated through the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony, we will dine with Him at His Heavenly Banquet, which is the eternal celebration of the Divine Liturgy.

So, he is this: we have such a high priest, made haste and came down and one who is seated at the right hand received him joyfully. And when of the throne of the Majesty in they saw it they all murmured, heaven, a minister in the sanctuary "He has gone in to be the guest and the true tent which is set up not of a man who is a sinner." And by man but by the Lord.

Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have defrauded any one of anything, I restore it fourfold." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man came to seek and to save the lost."

St. George Golf Tournament

Volunteers Needed: Annual Parish Golf Tournament & Taverna Dinner

This is an important request to find a committed group to work together for this important church fundraiser.

Our parish is at a crossroads as we look ahead to this year's Annual Golf Tournament and Taverna-style Dinner. This event has long been a valued tradition and a vital fundraiser for our church—but it can only happen if we form a dedicated group of volunteers to help plan and carry it out. You don't need to be a golfer or know anything about golf. There's a variety of things to accomplish.

The Parish Council must soon decide whether we will host the tournament this year. With a committed volunteer committee, it is likely that we can continue the tournament and the Taverna dinner again this year.

Other than an initial organizational meeting, most of the work will take place after the Festival, making this a manageable commitment for many.

This event is more than a day on the course—it is an important fundraiser that supports the life and ministries of our church. Your time, talent, and willingness to help can make the difference between continuing this tradition or seeing it come to an end in 2026.

If you are interested in volunteering or would like more information, please email Jim Christopoulos at goofy\_328@yahoo.com or Nick Speliopoulos at nspelio@me.com. Let us come together to ensure the success of this meaningful parish event.

Committee Sunday is here!

Following Divine Liturgy, come into the Parish Hall and learn about ways you can participate at St. George, whether you are part-time or full-time. Come and learn about the committees and which ones you would like to part of. The more people to participate...the more fun! OPA!!

Committees of the Parish Council

- The Parish Council sets the strategic direction and priorities, ensuring all ministries work toward a unified vision.
- Committees then take those priorities and develop specific plans, projects, and events to fulfill them, reporting back on progress and needs and, with Parish Council approval, implementing the specific actions.
